SECOND ANNUAL GUN CLUB TOURNAMENT

Shot Gun Enthusiasts at State to Compete for prizes on Williams Grounds.

On next Saturday, November 7, The Williams Gun Club will hold its second annual Blue Rock tournament at the club grounds, just back of the Fray Marcos. This tournament is registered with the Inter-State Association and shot gun enthusiast of Northern Arizona and a few from Southern California will be here to participate. Shooting will begin promptly at 10 AM, and last throughout the entire day.

The monies will be divided in four equal parts, and the Squier Money Back system will govern the contestants shooting throughout the program. Under this system those competing in every event, will receive back their entrance fees, less the price of blue rocks, providing they failed to win enough to cover such loss. In the merchandise event there will be enough prizes to go round, and each prize will be worth considerable more than the entrance fee.

It is estimated, that there will be at least twenty five shooters here on that date, including between five and ten professionals. It will be worth your time to go over and watch those men in this contest of skill. Among the professionals already heard from that will be here, are the following:

H. A. Hoyt, Winchester Repeating Arms Company; Ed Mitchell of the Selby Lead and S. Company; Guy Holohan, DuPont DeMours Powder Company; A. Bruner, Peters Cartridge company; H. Poston, Hercules Powder company; J. P. Bull, Remington Arms M. C. Company; C. A. Haight, Dupont De N. E. company; and Joe Rice, Hercules Powder company.

While these professionals are not allowed to compete for any monies or medals given by the club, they will shoot their best and try to break at least 100 straight, for if they do, the Inter-State association gives them an emblem, signifying that they are a real professional.

The club cordially invites every shot gun enthusiast in Arizona and especially around Williams to come and compete in this tournament. The Ladies are especially invited, there will be seats enough for all, so now you men, don't fail to bring your wives and sweethearts, and if you do not care to participate in any of the events, go and witness this great contest of skill of an est and best sport known.

Now, don't forget the date, as the Williams Gun Club wants every citizen in Williams to go and watch this contest.

See program for further information.

The BIG CHEESE will be cut for Thanksgiving. Place your order now.

STATE FAIR NEWS NOTES

One of the greatest free attractions ever shown in Arizona, has been booked for this year's Fair, in the form of a high-wire performance by Granada and Fedora, known as the "human elephant." They do a combined high-wire feature act, that has been the sensation all over the Eastern Circuits.

On a wire, sixty feet above ground, they imitate a huge baby elephant, and walk a tight wire with absolutely no parasols, balancing rods, or any of the common devices used to maintain equilibrium on the high wire.

This is a "hair raiser" in high wire performances, and the most thrilling dare-devil feat ever attempted, as the lives of this intrepid pair of performers depend solely upon their ability to maintain their balance while walking a hundred feet of tight wire, encased in the cumbersome garb of an imitation elephant.

Unlike most of these dangerous performances, this act is not safeguarded by life nets or similar devices to break the fall, in case they should lose their equilibrium.

One of the thrillers provided for Thursday afternoon, by the Fair Commission, will be a match race between the automobile and the aeroplane. Micky McGuire who is engaged for the entire week, will race his speedy aircraft around the mile track Thursday afternoon in competition to Barney Oldfield, the king of the automobile game. This is a dangerous, as well as interesting race, especially dangerous to the driver of the aeroplane, as safety in an aircraft, strange as it may seem, requires considerable height, especially where they are driving at great speed.

If anything should go wrong with the engine and it should stop for a second, when traveling so near to the ground, the machine and driver would instantly crash to the ground.

Mickey McGuire says he always feels safer when he is high in the air, for then, if anything should happen to the engine, he knows that he can gracefully glide and swerve back to terra-firm, and make an easy landing.

"Querrie Denmark," the greatest high school horse of the year, with his trainer and rider, Miss Ollie Beckman, will be at this year's Fair, and give a demonstration of how well a horse can be trained, and what wonderful tricks they are capable of.

Miss Beckman has trained Querrie Denmark from the day he was born, and has been constantly with him since.

The horse is now the property of Mr. John L. Considine, of the famous Sullivan and Considine Theatrical Booking Agency, and when Mr. Considine purchased Querrie Denmark, he also contracted with Miss Beckman to accompany the horse wherever he was shown. He has been shown in all of the Eastern horse fairs, and at most of the large State Fairs throughout the East.

Mr. Considine is also the owner of many fast race horses, and Querrie Denmark is shown wherever the racers go.

This is a hobby of Mr. Considine's, to own the most highly educated "high school" horse in the world. Mr. Considine has written that he will, in all probability, accompany his string of horses to the Fair at Phoenix, this year.

Indications are that the dries have carried the state, but it is impossible to give any definite results. Williams goes dry by thirteen.

KILLS LEOPARD WITH LAST SHOT

Armed with Shotgun and Only Three Cartridges P. P. Patterson has Hair-breadth Escape while Hunting Rabbits

P. P. Patterson while hunting rabbits in a canyon north of Williams last Monday suddenly came face to face with a Mexican Leopard and four cubs. He was armed with a shot gun and only had three shells in his possession. The beast started toward him when he fired, the first shot did not stop her, neither did the second, but the last shot killed when she was just a few feet away from him. It is a fine specimen of that kind of an animal and also a very rare one. After Mr. Patterson had fired the fatal shot he looked around for several minutes for his hat, when he happened to put his hand to his head and found his hat in place.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson have been camping out for about three weeks and are having a good time hunting. In all they bagged about 75 ducks and any number of rabbits. The writer is indebted to them for a fine supper of duck and rabbit.

The BIG CHEESE will be cut for Thanksgiving. Place your order now.

FREE USE FOR DEAD WOOD IN TUSAYAN FOREST

On and after November 1, 1914 and until further notice, settlers, miners, residents and prospectors for minerals may cut and remove from the entire Williams Division and that portion of the Grand Canyon Division lying outside of the Grand Canyon National Monument, Tusayan National Forest, free of charge and without permit, any dead timber needed for their own use, for fire wood, fencing, buildings, mining prospecting and other domestic purposes. No timber may be taken for sale or for commercial use.

Dead material which is taken should be fully utilized since no waste can be allowed if the future needs of the public are to be considered. Refuse of any kind should be piled compactly at a reasonable distance from living trees in order that the danger from fire may be lessened.

Permittees enjoying the free use privilege will be required to light fires on acres from which they obtain material and are expected to co-operate in the suppression of all fires on the National Forest in the vicinity of their homes. Free use permittees are required to comply with all regulations governing National Forests.

No green material of any kind whatever may be cut from Forest lands without first obtaining a permit from the nearest Forest officer. Free use permittees may remove dead timber only from National Forest land which is not included in current timber sale areas, pastures, planting sites, sample plots, etc., unless specific authority is secured.

The complete free use regulations approved by the Secretary of Agriculture may be had upon application if in doubt as to these regulations, inquiry should be made of the nearest Forest officer.

Harold Greene,
Forest Supervisor.
